SECTION 7 - RISK, CONDUCT AND SAFETY MANAGEMENT

7.0 The responsibility for managing risks related to the game of hockey lies with every person involved in the game. Every member should follow these general guidelines: 9.20.04

- always be conscious of potential risks
- do not sign any agreements that transfer unnecessary responsibility to yourself or your league or association/club
- use common sense
- try to minimize risks, even though all cannot be eliminated
- practice risk management in such a way as to add to the enjoyment of the game

Good risk, conduct and safety management includes four principles: 6.11.06

- identifying
- measuring
- minimizing and avoiding
- financing

7.1 IMPORTANCE OF RISK, CONDUCT AND SAFETY MANAGEMENT

The primary concern of most administrators is to reduce the frequency and severity of hockey injuries. When an injury occurs, Hockey Canada's insurance program may have to respond. If administrators are successful in managing the risks confronting the association, then injuries, claims and increased premiums can be minimized. 9.20.04

7.2 AREAS OF CONCERN 9.16.06

- . the arena contract: always read the rental agreement carefully and forward to HNB's office for Hockey Canada approval prior to signing
- . the arena: emergency exits, roofing, scoreboard, ventilation
- . the rink: boards, ice, nets, glass.
- . the verbal contract
- . bus contracts
- . equipment
- . billeting
- . child abuse
- . fundraisers 9.10.06

7.3        ARENA SAFETY INSPECTION
Available at Arena Safety Inspection 6.11.06

7.4        ARENA AGREEMENT
Available at Forms. 6.11.06

7.5        HNB HARASSMENT AND ABUSE POLICY AND PROCEDURES
Available at Complaint Intake Form 6.11.06

SECTION 8 – SPECIAL EVENT SANCTIONING

8.0        HNB has adopted special event sanctioning guidelines. Each request for sanctioning will be considered on an individual basis by the Risk, Conduct and Safety Management Committee. The guidelines and application form are available at Special Event. 9.20.04

SECTION 9 – CODE OF ETHICS

- 9.0        Managers and coaches are expected to share with game officials the responsibility for orderly conduct of the contest by the following: 6.13.04
- a. Acknowledging the authority of officials in a contest and by relating to them in a respectful manner. 6.13.04
  - b. Exercising control over players in their charge and serving as a stabilizing agent during contentious moments of games. 6.13.04
  - c. Exercising control of their own conduct so as to avoid inciting players, officials and spectators. 6.13.04
  - d. Conducting themselves at all times in a manner which is appropriate to the responsibilities of their position. 6.13.04
- 9.1        a. It is considered unethical for a manager or coach to comment in a disparaging manner to the press, make derogatory remarks publicly about another person, program or association. 6.13.04
- b. The criteria for imposing sanctions may be as a minimum a 3-week suspension. 9.20.04
  - c. The second incident in the same hockey season shall be an automatic suspension for a minimum of one year. 6.11.06

SECTION 10 – CONDUCT

- b. special affiliation with 19 players at large
- 19.2 Deadlines
- a. December 15 – All development and Minor Junior team's Team Application for Affiliation must be filed with HNB no later than midnight of this date. If a team is affiliating with a lower category team, such team must be named in the HCR. 6.15.08
- b. January 15 – All development and competitive teams affiliating with 19 special affiliate players, such affiliation must be identified no later than December 15 in the HCR, prior to the player being used in a game, but not later than January 15. 6.15.08
- 19.3 Players shall be permitted to affiliate with only 1 team, except for Midget AAA Major players who can affiliate with a Major Junior or Junior A team, during a hockey season. 1.26.08
- 19.4 a. First year players in a division may affiliate to a higher category within their division. Second year players in a division may affiliate to a higher category within their division or to the next division. 6.11.06
- b. In the Bantam and Midget divisions, players may affiliate to a higher category

- within their division, or a higher division. 6.11.06
- c. Female association first year or second year players in a division may affiliate to a higher female category within their division or to the next female division. 6.10.07
  - d. The NBMHC shall not allow rostered development players to play as affiliate players for competitive level teams. Rostered competitive AA, A, B level players may not play as affiliates for Competitive C level teams. 6.15.08
  - e. Players may affiliate to a higher division or category (ie. B to A, A to AA) provided the teams are not playing in the same league schedule. 6.15.08
- 19.5 All affiliate players must be an active player for the team on which they are rostered. Active is defined as participation in one league game, with the team on which the player is rostered. 6.15.08
- 19.6 Minor players affiliating to a higher division or category (including Junior) team must have their minor team coach's written approval. If an affiliated player is needed the coach of the affiliate player's team must give his consent before asking the affiliated player to participate in a game or practice. 6.14.09
- 19.7 Approval of Special Affiliate Players 6.13.10
- a. Lower Category President      President of Association, Club, from where the player is registered.
  - b. High Category President      President of Association, Junior team
  - c. Lower Category Coach      Coach of the team on which the player is rostered
  - d. Player / Parent      Player is a necessity, parent is a necessity for those players under the age of majority
  - e. HNB      NBMHC District Director of Club (for Minor to Minor affiliation)
  - f. HNB      HNB Director of Administration for Minor to Junior affiliation
- 19.8 Number of Games
- a. An affiliate player may play for a team of a higher division or category within Minor and Junior C at any time, with the lower category coach's consent, but if he plays more than 5 league and/or playoff games after January 10 as an affiliate, he shall not be allowed to compete any further with the team on which he is rostered. Exhibition and/or tournament games which are not part of regular league games or playoff games are not counted in the number of games in which an affiliate player participates. 6.15.08
  - b. A player may affiliate to a Junior A or B team and shall be restricted to play a maximum of ten junior games as an affiliate in one season. Once the affiliate player's minor team has completed their playoff schedule, they may then rejoin their Junior A or B team as an affiliate player. Exhibition and/or tournament games which are not part of regular league games or playoff games are not counted in the number of games in which an affiliate player participates. 6.11.06
  - c. A suspended player, whose team has been eliminated from further competition for the year, may serve his suspension with his higher category affiliate team provided he has played a minimum of 1 game as an affiliate after January 10. A player who receives a suspension with his higher category affiliate team, and that team is subsequently eliminated from further competition for the year before the full suspension has been served, may complete his suspension with his own lower category team. If a player is suspended with his higher category affiliate team after January 10, the player must serve the suspension with the higher category affiliate team. If a game counts toward the serving of a suspension, then it in effect counts as a game played. Therefore, if the player exceeds the 5 game rule after January 10, he become a member of the higher category team and cannot return to his lower category team. 6.10.07
